FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celebrate Fall with a Rosh Hashanah Festival this Sunday at the Zimmer Children's Museum

Los Angeles, CA – Join us for a day of reflection and celebration as we welcome the Jewish New Year with friends and families of the Zimmer! There will be activities for all our Zimmer families to learn from and share with one another.

When: Sunday, September 25th, 12:30- 5:00pm

Where: The Zimmer Children's Museum, 6505 Wilshire Boulevard #100, Los Angeles, CA 90048

What:

Story Time (1:00pm and 4:00pm):

Relax with us in Bubbie's Bookstore as we read stories about Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year.

Apple Stamp Art (2:00-3:00pm):

Apple stamping is messy fun for Rosh Hashanah and fall! Eating apples and honey is a Rosh Hashanah tradition to represent a "sweet" new year, so join us as we create art out of this symbolic food.

Charlie Hope Concert (3:00-4:00pm):

Charlie Hope is an award winning children's singer-songwriter, currently living in Seattle and touring Southern California this Fall. Her fresh approach to children's music stems from the many years she has spent with children- from receiving her degree in Art Therapy with Children to being a trusted caregiver at many preschools and private homes. Charlie will be at the Zimmer for the festival this Sunday singing some of her top hits!
